“ To my friends the Aaron family, my heart goes out to each of you, in this trying time. I pray God's peace comfort your heart's and may His joy be your strength. Saying goodbye to someone you love is never easy, but you must be thankful for those moments that made you laugh and warmed your heart's.

*Those keepsake memories you shared with your Mother and as a family you shared together. May you find comfort in those memories you shared with your Mother, when you find yourself alone thinking about her, when everyone goes back to their daily lives and homes. Please accept my sincere condolences.
God Bless You*
