

Clifford Carwile Kinsey

April 22, 2016

Clifford Carwile Kinsey, 90 years old, died April 16th at Plantation Oaks Senior Living Center in High Springs, Florida.

Cliff grew up in West Palm Beach, Florida, then retired with his wife Margie of 52 years to Salt Springs, Florida. He spent many wonderful years fishing and enjoying the beautiful wildlife that living on Lake Kerr provided. He had spent many summers fishing and hunting there as a boy with his father Warren Kinsey, brothers, Victor and Duey, and sister Rona Kinsey. This was a special place for him as he taught his children and grandchildren to fish and enjoy nature passing on the love of both.

Clifford was the co-owner of Boy's Inc. a roofing, A/C and sheet metal company in W. Palm Beach, Florida and worked as the estimator there until the company was sold. Prior to his work at Boy's he was drafted in the U.S. Army near the end of WW11. Clifford ended up in the recruiting section and worked there until he was able to transfer to a unit in the Philippines. He took Philippine scouts up to Clarke Field north of Manila. From there he received fly orders back home which was unusual. The rest of the company went home on a ship. It was a great honor.

Mr. Kinsey is survived by his daughters, Marlene Hendrickson and Brenda Cox and three grandchildren , Melanie Chandler, Rebecca McKenzy, Gary Hendrickson, and three great grandchildren Selena Oropesa, Jacques McKenzy and Jeffrery Chandler. He is preceded in death by his wife Marjorie Hartwell Kinsey and brother Duey Kinsey. Cliff was a kind, and loving father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He always had a smile for all he greeted.
