“ I'll always remember my sweet and precious sister. I still have not released my grief or received any closure since my mom called me to say you had transitioned. Fly high with the ancestors and hopefully we will meet again on the other side of this earthly life. ❤️

“ I miss my sugary sweet, compassionate, fun, soft spoken, loving, beaUtiful cousin now and forever will. I can't help but reminiscence about how she and I used to write each other longhand letters the time we were children up until we both married and long after then. Whenever we were in each other's presence, we were like Siamese twins, 🐱🐱♀ stuck together until bedtime, practically sitting in each other's laps, catching up on each others lives. So much laughter. I can hardly believe that you are gone from this present realm, and I will no longer be able to experience those cherished moments here on earth with you, BeaUtiful, as we were affectionately named and addressed each other. Gone too soon, BeaUtiful Cousin. Gone too soon. I am broken. 💔 Yet, I am happy for yoU to be in the presence of your father, mother, brothers, my mom, but mostly in the presence of GOD. 'Til we meet again, RIH. 😭
