“ I am completely stunned at learning of Don's passing. When I moved to Indialantic in 1968, he lived behind me and soon became one of my best friends and remained such through high school. We had lost touch and reconnected through social media. I stumbled across this quite by accident and was immensely saddened. I have nothing but fond memories of us cruising the Indian River in his Sunflower sailboat, pretending to be moon walkers and all the other adventures youngsters had in the lunar heydays. Godspeed and good tailwinds, my friend and all my best to the family.

“ I only knew Don through an associate, but I only heard praise about how good of a person he was. I would like to to give my condolences to his family and especially his children. My thoughts and prayers are with all his family and friends during this tough time in your life's.
