“ Aunt Dorothy re-entered my life a few years ago after an absence of decades. My brother , who watched over her in later years as if she were his own mother, brought the connection about. Aunt Dorothy and I spoke by phone occasionally. She could be so warm that I felt like I was visiting her home just as I first did over sixty years ago. She spoke of how she looked forward to being with her husband again. Now she has moved on to that happiness she wanted and the absence we must accept.....for now.
