

Elizabeth Farmer

April 3, 2016

Elizabeth Williams Farmer, age 90 passed away on April 3rd, 2016 in Gainesville, Florida. To her friends she was “Liz”, always good for a laugh. To her family, she was the best “Mimi” we could have asked for.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her loving husband James. She is survived by her three children: Jeanette, James Jr. (Mary), and David; her eight grandchildren: Nicki, David, Jason, Jamie, Virgil, Shannon, Kyle, and Rachel; and her 17 great-grandchildren.

Elizabeth was devoted to her family and to God. All who loved her find happiness that she is now home in Heaven with James.

Funeral Services will be held 6:30 pm on Thursday, April 7, 2016 at Forest Meadows Funeral Home Chapel on 23rd Ave. in Gainesville with Rev. Harry Holloman officiating. Visitation will be held before services from 5:00 to 6:30 pm. Interment will take place at Barrancas National Cemetery in Pensacola on Monday April 11, 2016 at 10:15am. Arrangements are under the care of Forest Meadows Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

WB

“ She was a fun Aunt, and I will always cherish my childhood memories at her home in Mary Esther. I truly loved her. Condolences to Janette, Jimmy and David and their families. Love, Wanda Leigh

Wanda Cates Bolinger - September 11, 2023 at 04:46 PM

NA

“ *Dear Auntie Liz,
Happy Birthday on your celebration day up in heaven reuniting with Uncle James, your mom and dad and so many family and friends. You have always been my special place in my heart and have made so many wonderful memories with you. Thanks for all the newsy cards you sent me and being a good big sis for my dad. You lived a wonderful life and to its fullest. You will be missed by all and know you have people already laughing up there...
LOVE ya!
Norma Jean*

Norma Allen - September 11, 2023 at 04:46 PM