And upset to hear the passing of Beth, Beth was like a older sister and a daughter to my mother Nina .my mom has known Beth and her family for over 60 some years way before I was born ..im just now found out she has passed away but has gone home to be with the lord...i would of loved to have been there to pay my respect to her and her family... Now I have to tell my mother who is gonna be really hurt of this news I'm so afraid to tell her we have so much love for Beth and all her family and words can't even come out right now im just blown away from hearing the news...i can say my family have had many fun and fond memories of being with Beth and being apart of their family for years ..i know she looking down telling me " aww missy you got this you'll be fine " and actual reality I'm saying to my self NO BETH ONLY IF YOU WERE HERE TO HELP".. She always had a master plan and would make you laugh and smile all day long.. She had so much love in her heart for all.. But don't get her twisted cause she would tell you what she thought regardless if you likes it or not... Well Beth my sister you left me with a hard pill to swallow... just know we will never forget you and we will always keep tje memories of you close to heart... I love you and I'm truly sorry I didn't get to spend one last time with you... Keep watching over us and we will see you again... And to all of the family ..we love you and were here for you all... “ I am so sorry for your loss. I liked her very much. Only thing she was scared of was lightening. Now she gets to ride it instead of be scared of it. Sending my love.

I grew up with the kids as well as my brother Robert Barton, who was her son's best friends growing up .She was always a good woman and didn't put up with any crap. I'm so sad to hear about this and I will be there for this because I know my brother would want this. I love you Timmy and Amber and I'm so sorry.*
