“ I miss you auntie, I may have been only 8 years of age when you passed but its still left a hole in my happiness and when I saw you resting in the coffin, I cried for hours on end and felt my happiness fade away, I still laugh and smile, but it seems hard to be happy without my best friend, aunt, and mother like figure in my life...

“ I just aware of this sad news. I am very sorry for the loss of Liz. I was not a very close friend of Liz, but I was used to see her at the school almost every morning and eventually spent some minutes chatting to her. It is difficult to express my feelings in words, but I express my deepest sympathy to Liz's family. God Bless you all.

“ I am very sorry to read of the untimely passing of your mother, daughter, sister and friend. She will be missed. You have lost someone close to you in death; you have faced one of life's most painful and devastating experiences. Our Heavenly Creator understands your grief. More than that, he can undo the results of death as promised in his Word the Bible at Isaiah 25:8. He will fulfill this promise by means of his Kingdom in which we pray for in the Lord's Prayer. Once more I am sorry for your loss.

“ Remembrance is a golden chain Death tries to break but all in vain. To have, to love and then part is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. The years in time may wipe out some things not too important but some things are never wiped out, like special times, places, things will remain as happy times when everyone was together. These memories will become a treasure.
I am so very sorry as I know only too well the pain you are all experiencing. I will tell you that time will heal you, this I know too. Focus on those 2 beautiful children and they will help you through. This I also know too. I am here if you need to talk or if there is anything I can do or help with.
My prayers are with you all.
