“ Vivian,

I didn't know your brother personally. I did know however of the loving bond the two of you had for each other, You were a faithful and compassionate sister from his beginning to the end until God called him home. It is not without sorrow that we get strength as God calls us to be closer to him. Blessings to you always.

“ Vivian,
No one could have loved a brother more than you loved and cared for Floyd. You traveled from NC to FL and back so many times you could drive it with your eyes closed. Floyd knew he was loved and he loved you in return. I know you will greatly miss him, but you will see him again one day healed and happy. Let that and the knowledge that you were the best sister ever bring you comfort during this difficult.

Love you,
Linda

Loss of a beloved brother can be so blinding that you lose sight of all the love that's Within your reach. Allow yourself to be loved and cared for at this time of sorrow. Your memories of Floyd will guide your smiles.
