“ Mary, John and Jeff, I am very saddened to hear of the passing of your mother, my Aunt Isabelle. She was a very dear lady and one I loved dearly. I am very grateful for several opportunities in my life to have spent time with her and being able to visit and get to know her. I am very sorry that I was not able to visit her for the last few years. Your obituary was a testament to her life and graciousness. My prayers are with you. Love, Patsy Stilley Reed

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Aunt Isabelle. Although I didn't have the privilege of knowing her as well as I would have liked, I remember her well. The obituary read like a wonderful story and I appreciated reading it and as Mary Ann said, filling in the blanks.

She lived a wonderful life, and I am so happy to have been one of her nieces. I remember her smile and easy laughter as Arlene said. My sympathies to cousins Mary, John, and Jeff and all of her families.

“ I am very grateful to know, love, and appreciate Aunt Isabelle through the years. She has always been an encourager in her faith in God as well as to her family and myself. From the somewhat recklessness as children to inspiring our education and our love for the outdoors. Thank you also to you Mary, John, and Jeff for being great friends and cousins through the years. I am praying that we can carry the love and respect that your mom has instilled in us. We love you all,

“ I've always admired your mom and my Aunt Isabelle, but your words posted here help me to fill in the details behind that great respect. I've had so little opportunity to know her better, especially in the last decades. Thanks for filling in the blanks.

I'd love to help celebrate her life with you on January 2nd, but I'll be with you all in spirit.

“ Dear Mary and family,
I have to say that you have honored your beautiful mother with the most amazing obituary I have ever read! I truly feel like I know Isabelle now. Perhaps that's partly because I too was a military dependent, moving every 3 years or less over much of the world.

You have shared her spirit with those of us that were not lucky enough to know her. Mary, there is so much of your mom in you my friend! Sending you hugs and much love as you go through this very hard time.
