

Jeanne Weaver

September 27, 2013

Jeanne Weaver died at home, on Wednesday, September 25th. She was 85.

Born on March 11, 1928, in Elmira, NY, Mrs. Weaver moved to Gainesville in 1992. She loved being a member of Grace United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Weaver was also an active member of the Gainesville Health & Fitness Center, as well as a member of the West End Community and Red Hat Society.

Predeceased by her husband of 52 years Leroy Weaver, she is survived by her daughter Linda Harland (Ernie), her son Lee Weaver (Ro), 4 grandchildren, Jeanann Leary, Michael Leary, Ryan Wyrosdick (Chris) and Tara Weaver-Hill (Tommy). Three great-grandsons were also the light of her life: Tyler, Christian and Cameron Wyrosdick and her adopted family, the Cirullis.

Services will be held Monday, September 30 at 2 PM at the Grace United Methodist Church, on Newberry Road, with the Reverend Denny Heiberg officiating, along with Linda Cirulli-Burton. Interment will be held at a later date at Forest Meadows East Cemetery.

“ I can't believe that it's been two years since I lost my Nana. She was more than just my grandmother, she was my best friend. I have so many amazing memories that mean the world to me. I miss her everyday and always will. I know she is dancing with my Papa and watching over us, but her presence is always missed. Thank you to all who loved her.

“ How many times did I hear Jean say: "Dick, I am coming soon." Now I am sure she is on her way. Miss her.
