

Jevera A. Davis

October 9, 1924 - January 14, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Jevera A. Davis, who left us on January 14, 2025, at the age of 100. Born on October 9, 1924, in Branford, FL, Jevera lived a full and vibrant life, filled with stories, laughter, and love.

Jevera was a dedicated meat wrapper in the grocery store industry, where she made many friends and created countless memories. Her hands that expertly wrapped your favorite cuts of meat always had a warm smile and kind word to share. While she may not have had a formal education beyond the 8th grade, her wisdom and life experiences far surpassed any classroom learning.

She will be dearly missed by her son, David Colding and wife Sheila, stepdaughters, Jean Mills and husband Gary, Janice Davis Noegel, stepsons; Jerry Davis and wife Elaine, Bobby Davis and wife Deloris and her sister, Mary McCall, and many grandchildren and great grandchildren who cherish countless memories of family gatherings, celebrations, and tender moments shared over the years.

Friends and family are invited to celebrate Jevera's life during the funeral service that will be held at Forest Meadows on January 18, 2025, at 11:00 am. Before the service, there will be a visitation starting at 10:00 am, allowing everyone to come together, share stories, and honor her memory.

Jevera was preceded in death by: Leo Clemons, Rinda Manning, George Davis, Amerilis Colding, Wanda Colding, Glendell Davis, Wendell Davis

“ One of my favorite aunts. When kids loved to go to her house on Easter. Had the best egg hunts ever. Also loved going in to Wards Super Market and see her smiling face behind the meat counter. She would always take time to come out and talk to me and my wife. Always gave my wife a hug. She will be missed.

“ Good bye, Vera! I often remember the year when you came to Bavaria to visit Irene in Ruhpolding. Was a good time. I was very fond of you and Margaret. So long then, I will never forget you! See you in the next live.
Yours always, Isi
