Obituary...

Wilbert Joseph Hunter, son of Wilburn Joseph Hunter and Alice Elaine Deal Hunter (both deceased), father of Blake Hunter and proud grandfather of Austin Blake Hunter, brother of Gary Hunter, Chris Hunter, Lisa Swartz (deceased) and Kim Hunter (deceased), passed away Sunday, October 18th at his home near Fort White, Florida, with his immediate family by his side. He was 65 years old. Wilbert was a long time resident of the area and known for his talent as a singer guitarist. He was also known as a great man who spoke unfiltered thoughts. His love for his son Blake and his grandson Austin knew no boundaries. He will be missed by his many friends and family.

Services will be at Tustenuggee Methodist Church, near Fort White, at 11:00 am, Thursday, October 22, 2015. There will be no formal visitation or viewing.

A potluck gathering of family and friends will be held at Norman and Lenora Steadman's home following the service.

Funeral arrangements by Evans Carter Funeral Home, High Springs, FL.

“ Dean and I are praying for Wilbert's family. We knew Wilbert for many years and he worked for us at Dean Davis Auto Parts. Not only was he a good parts man, he was very entertaining. He sang for everyone and had a wonderful sense of humor. He would break into song at any given moment. His favorite was " Together Again". I can hear him now. We miss you already Wilbert.
