“ Grandma, I will forever remember your laugh, and that above all else, love can bring you back to me even if just for a moment. The way you cried when I hugged you that day with Dad, it remains in my heart so fresh, you had no memory of me until we embraced. Then my Grandma knew her Wachel Wee was there. I promise to share your love and laughter for an eternity.

“ Grandma, you always brightened my day, I will miss your smiling face and warm hug. As difficult as it is to let you go I know you are in a far better place and made whole once again. You will be in my mind the remainder of my days and what a joy it will be to see you again when the time comes, save me a place. I love and miss you, Danny

“ Thank you so much for sending this to me. It is beautifully done. I will print it out and add it to an album that I am adding to that I have put together using members photos from my Mother's family.,

“ This was beautifully done, just like Jo herself. What an amazing life she lead! We appreciated knowing her personally, and through her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.
