“ I knew Laure and her family as a kid growing up in South Hempstead, Long Island. I lost contact with the family when they moved away, and reconnected with Laure on Facebook a few years ago. I was hoping to see her on our next trip to Florida, but unfortunately never got the chance. I'm sorry I never got to know her as an adult. She sounds like she was an amazing, loving and caring woman. My condolences and prayers to the family.
