

Nicolas Galati

May 24, 2013

My Dad, Nick, went to be with the Lord on May 2nd 2013. The best dad anyone could ask for, with great gentle humor and was what a gentleman is truly. He loved the Lord and went to church every Sunday and holiday until his body gave out after the age of 90, but I know he is with Jesus now. As a child growing up I remember him working hard with his corner grocery store until the big box stores came along like the Acme. But he continued to work to make a great family. He never had a bad word to say about anyone. He was a WW2 Vet and never talked about it, except that he landed on Omaha Beach.. In 2004 he moved to Foulkeways Retirement home in Gwynedd Pa., which he really enjoyed being there with their great friends, great care and of course most of all with his kitty "Charlie". In 2008 he and 9 others were honored by The French Republic and named a "Chevalier" of the Legion of Honor, which is a sign of French's true and unforgettable gratitude and appreciation for their personal, precious contribution to the United States' decisive role in the liberation of their country during World War II. The Legion of Honor was created by Napoleon in 1802 to acknowledge services rendered to France by of great merit. The French people will never forget their courage and devotion to the great cause of freedom. He leaves behind his 2 daughters Darlene Pifalo of Gainesville, Roberta Galati and her husband Bill Goulding (a son he never had & loved) of Berwyn Pa...plus many nieces and nephews, that were with him through the past years. He is missed, but is now with this "beautiful wife" Adele, who passed away Oct 1, 1999. We love you Dad with all our hearts!! Thank you for being a wonderful role model of all who knew you. You will be honored June 5th as a WW2 Vet and wonderful father on Wednesday, June 5th, 2013 at 11:30 a.m., in "The Chapel in the Meadows" Forest Meadows Mausoleum, at Forest Meadows Memorial Park, Central. 4100 N. W. 39th Ave., Gainesville, Florida.

Tribute Wall

DG

“ Dearest Darlene,

Your beautiful words are a true honor to you father. I know he is looking down on you with a heart bursting with pride and joy. You are a testament to your mum and dad's care and upbringing. They raised a solid, independent, kind and generous lady. I am honored to know you and call you my friend.

Love,

Deirdre

deirdre gray - June 02, 2013 at 12:21 PM