

Pastor James Morrison

January 26, 2022

Pastor Jim (James) Morrison (77) of Fort White, FL peacefully passed away on January 22, 2022. He was born on October 12, 1944 in Queens, NY to Michael and Dorothy Morrison.

Jim is survived by his beautiful wife of 56 years, Diana (Lowe) Morrison; his siblings, Dorothy Schneider (Paul), Robert Morrison (Sheila) and Patricia Bowen (Mark); his son, Jimmy Morrison (Debbie), daughters, Christina Dukes (Dean) and Kelly Lawrence (Ty); Grandchildren, James Morrison (Ashley), Harley Brock (Jayson), Rachel Byrne (Aaron), Makenzie Lawrence, Samantha Lawrence and Karter Lawrence; Great Grandchildren, Hudson Brock, Oakley Morrison and Harlow Brock.

While growing up in New York, Jim became an electrician and then began constructing and maintaining elevators in the city. Wanting a simpler life, Jim and Diana moved to Florida to raise their young family. With a steadfast connection to serving God, he became an ordained minister to help serve the people of his community. Spending much of his time helping those in need and in nursing homes. He also served as a volunteer firefighter and Chaplin for the Fort White community. He had a huge heart for his family, the community and for the Messiah.

There will be memorial service for Pastor Jim at Isaiah Ministries, 138 SW

Genesis Court, Fort White, FL on Friday, February 4 at 2:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate a charitable donation to Isaiah Ministries.

“ Heartfelt condolences to the entire Morrison family. My fondest memories of Jimmy took place in Jamaica Estates NY when our families would gather at the Morrison's backyard for a bar-be-cue and swimming in the pool.

So sorry for your loss. Sincerely, the "other" Diana and Jimmy (Ankner)
