“ I met rebecca when we were both young moms. Her mother worked at our school in kettering ohio and Brett was in our program. Rebecca and i became fast friends as this was the time she was beginning her love of sewing and i was only too happy to have her help. she was always smiling, always moving and doing. i will not forget her exuberance for life and her faith in the LORD. I am sure she met HIM with that same lovely smile she graced us all with over the years.

As we both moved around, we lost touch but i still maintained contact with her mother Gloria.. My heart breaks for Brett and Jeff for mothers are irreplaceable.. For Rich ,losing your spouse/partner/best friend is a terrible thing to go through, i know ..and to Gloria and Ted i send love and i hope that GOD gives you all the strength you need to keep her memory alive for her grandchildren...love, elizabeth sava

“ Rich and family, my heart breaks for you. You are right, heaven has gained an angel. I can't but smile at the thought of her teaching yoga to all of the other angels. I am praying for strength and healing for you all. Please let me know if there is anything that I can do for you. We will all miss her very much. Love, Colleen

“ No words can express the loss of my mom, best friend and the gain of an angel. Heaven is lucky to have gained an angel. Her family is saddened at the loss of her untimely death. She will continue to teach me and watch over me. The dichotomy of life is the mourning of her passing and the celebration of her life. All in God's plan, one in which I did not get a say, but I will accept the loss, hopefully, with the grace that she has taught.

I love you mom, and I cannot express the sadness and joy with which I am feeling.

Love always,

Jeff

“ Words fall short in expressing how very sad I am to hear of Rebecca's passing. She was a wonderful person to have met and I know she meant the world to her family. My heart goes out to all of Rebecca's family and to Rich and his sons and grandchildren who knew her best and the suffering they are enduring.

“ We will miss Rebecca everyday. Her laugh, her gentle spirit, her nurturing soul taught us to be mindful of all of life's gifts, both large and small. She was beloved by our children who thought of her as a "local grandma". She always had a kind word for them and was so genuinely interested in what they had to say to her. Our lives have been enriched simply by knowing her and we will carry her in our hearts forever.

Our deepest sympathies to Rich, Jeff and Brett, Kris.. Keely and Grady We hope you can take some small amount of comfort in knowing how much she loved you all.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Rebecca's family. What a beautiful picture, it captured her love of life and true beauty. I know you miss her terribly. However, there is a hope in a promise found in God's Word, at John 5:28,28. It says:"...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his[Jesus']voice and come out." Is that not a wonderful expectation?
