The whisper of the surf,

Our link with the earth.

The rolling of the waves,

The way for our love paves.

The changing of the tide,

The beginning of our new life.

“ I just found out about Shannon passing and was very devastated. I havent seen Shannon in over eighteen years. We went to school together and worked together at Hardee's. I remember when we were both promoted to CRP. We also dated brothers and would often stay over at their house together. She was a very special person, and I'm sure there if a special in heaven for her. I wish I would have stayed in touch with her, she will be greatly missed.

“ I am very sorry to hear of your loss. "All things that were written aforetime, were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the scriptures, we might have hope." (Romans 15:4) May the promise of a resurrection found in the scriptures, give you peace, hope and comfort you during the days ahead.
