

Sheela Moudgil

May 3, 2014

Mrs. Sheela Moudgil, age 58, passed away peacefully at her home in Gainesville, Florida, on May 1, 2014, surrounded by her family.

Sheela was born on September 30, 1955 to Mr. B.S. Kaushik and the late Mrs. C.K. Kaushik from New Delhi, India. She received her BS from Lady Irwin College in New Delhi. In 1973 she married Brij M. Moudgil. She then went on to pursue further education, receiving her BS and MS degrees in Accounting from the University of Florida, and earned her CPA license, all while raising her three children. Above all of her qualifications and titles, Sheela was a devoted and dedicated mother and wife. She remains the epitome of love, honor, and respect for her family.

Sheela worked at the University of Florida for nearly 25 years, most recently as Associate Controller of Finance and Accounting. Sheela will be remembered for her many virtues, including her determination, intelligence, strong work ethic, and artistic gifts.

Sheela had many talents and most importantly, always used them to benefit others. She was rare in her ability to bring people together, and to make those moments of togetherness so very memorable and special. She excelled personally and professionally and lived life with gusto, always a role model for her children.

She lives on in the hearts of her loving husband of 40 years, Brij M. Moudgil, her father B.S. Kaushik, uncle Jagdish Kaushik, daughter Suniti Moudgil, son-in-law Ravi Amaravadi, daughter Sarika Moudgil, son Bharat Moudgil, two grandchildren (Rishi and Sonali), and three sisters (Meena Gangahar, Roopa Kaushik and Pratima Mahajan).

A funeral service will be held at 11am on May 5, 2014 at Forest Meadows Funeral Home, 725 NW 23rd Avenue Gainesville, FL followed by a private cremation.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Vedanta Center of St. Petersburg or the Bladder Cancer Research Fund of the University of Pennsylvania.

“ I first met Sheela when we attended piano recitals at the Thomas Center for our daughters who shared the same piano teacher, Mrs. Bernice Maskin. Sheela was a very sweet, calm, caring person. Later on here at UF she was always very helpful whenever I needed her advise on dealing with grants. My thoughts and prayers are with the family at such difficult time.

“ To Sheela's Family -

May your sorrow be outdone by your memories of joy. Think often of the good times, of laughter, of love. Each of you carry a part of Sheela within you, share them and you will find she is very much still with you.

Since the day I first met her, Sheela was always kind, helpful and patient; a true blessing.

“ Moudgil,

All of our OTL family will have you in our thoughts and prayers today. I only met Sheela at one of the PERC holiday parties and knew right away she was the light of your life.

God bless you and your family during this difficult time.

“ To Sheela's Family:

I had the great privilege to work closely with Sheela for the past few years. Sheela was not only dedicated and hard-working, but also always caring for the people surrounding her. I am grateful for all the confidence she put in me. Her spirit will be with us for years to come. My thoughts are with her loving family in these incredibly difficult times.

“ Dear Moudgil family:

It was with sad regret that I heard of the passing of Sheela. I worked with her in Finance and Accounting at the University of Florida for many years. I retired back in 2010. As my immediate supervisor, I always felt her support. As a person, she always conducted herself with grace and dignity. She often spoke very proudly of her family. She was a fine lady and she will be missed. I pray that you will be able to find some joy in the pleasant memories you had with Sheela, that you carry within you. May peace be unto you.

“ To Sheela's Loving Family:

Sheela was smart, hard-working, dedicated, devoted, courteous, and respectful. She always managed to stay on top of her work responsibilities without sacrificing her commitment to being a loving wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, and sister to all of her family. Whenever and wherever there was a need, Sheela was always there to fill it. I am fortunate to have known Sheela. Pleasant and fond memories of her will be with me always.

Sincerely, Marc Wilson

“ Dear Brij, Suniti, Sarika, Bharat & Family

Although we will be out of town 5th of May but our thoughts will be with you.

Sheila will always be remembered by us because of her quiet dignity, soft spoken manners and the ever present smile.

She always met us with warmth and grace. Throughout her illness she showed remarkable strength as did all of you.

Sometimes life is very hard to fathom and may you find peace.

Sharing in your sorrow.
