“ Aunt Shirley,
Thank you for ways being like an Aunt to me and being my Grandma Best Friend. You always encouraged me to do right when I was younger and showed me that a real Family can be an extended Family... Thanks for always including me on summer activities and letting me play salon at the salon when I was little...
You were an amazing woman and many loved you.. You will be missed but never forgotten... I love you... Tell my grandparents i love them and my little brother to..
Love always Becca, See again someday soon..

“ Shirley was my hairstylist for many years. I followed her from the University Ave. location to Thornebrook, and then to the shop near GHS. She was always helpful and encouraging. We shared an interest in books, dollhouses, and late-night radio programs. Now I send condolences to her family and friends. Shirley will be missed.
