

Stephen Goldman

February 7, 2013

Stephen Goldman, 65, passed away Wednesday, February 6.

He was born to the late Harry and Gertrude Goldman on March 16, 1945 in Brooklyn, New York.

Steve lived most of his life in Florida, where he was a store manager for the JByrons Department store. In 1990, he relocated to Las Vegas, NV and worked for eighteen years as a District Manager for Circuit City before retiring.

Steve was a gadget guy, always trying out new technologies. His passions were his kids and his dogs. He will be remembered by his friends and family for his dry humor, quick wit and incredible work ethic. He will be sorely missed.

Steve is survived by two children: Wendy Pittman (Danny) of Gainesville, Ga and Scott Costello (Jennifer) of Gainesville Florida. He is also survived by seven grandchildren, Taylor, Lindsay, Trevor, Danny, Rebekah, Dallas and Trey.

Tribute Wall

“ IT WAS A PLEASURE WORKING WITH YOU AT SEARS.. IM SAD
YOUR GONE BUT HAPPY YOUR IN A BETTER PLACE...

la tanya ward - February 11, 2013 at 01:20 AM