

William Clarence Davis,

September 30, 2021

William Clarence Davis, Sr, 66, of High Springs, Florida, passed away on Saturday, September 25, 2021.

Tribute Wall

RM

“ I am Eternally Grateful to have you a part of my life through the Absolute Toughest Times! Your wisdom and strong sometimes annoying (lol) guidance taught me lessons I will never forget. The years we spent working side by side weren't always easy in actuality we butted heads quite often! (But that's what stubborn, hard headed people do) Years were spent with you sharing your knowledge and wisdom. You were always encouraging me to dig deep within myself find my strengths and rely on them! I've never had anyone believe in me as much as you did! For that alone I am tremendously grateful! It was because of you that I learned to believe and trust in myself ! You were as close to me as if you were truly my very own Dad... I will Forever Miss You and Regret the years gone by that I didn't keep in touch. Know this... lessons taught to me by you will carry on as long as I have breath within me! You were Simply the BEST! Thank you so much for EVERYTHING "Chief"! Thank you for listening, understanding, encouraging and believing in me. You believed in me and encouraged me when I couldn't! Thank you for the Tough Love you readily handed out when needed! Thank you for carrying me when I couldn't carry myself! Thank you for always having my back and Always having Faith in me! Thank you for your Strength and Compassion when I lost my Grandma. Thank you for encouraging me to put one foot in front of the other when I lost my brother! You kept me moving forward when all I wanted to do was crawl in the casket with him! You will never know how much you and the things you did truly meant to me! Thank you from the bottom of my heart ❤️! I am eternally indebted to you!

Love Always,
Rhonda

Rhonda Megargel - December 25, 2021 at 05:54 AM